Free English Classes (FEC)

FEC is emerging progressively with periodic training, opening of new centres and innovative activities.

Induction training program: As AAMF is trying to open new centres, we have to hire many facilitators. They are selected from among the shortlisted candidates, who undergo an induction training program for three days. This month induction training programs were organized from 19 to 21, 28 to 31 December 2012. Fifteen candidates for the post of facilitators attended this program, of which 6 were selected to take up their positions. The programmes were administered by Mr.Sandeep Mahajan and Ms. Payal Mahajan of the Art of Learning Foundation.

Training program for Facilitators: Training program for existing facilitators are organized periodically. FEC facilitators underwent Level 2 training in at Vasant Gaon on 3, 4 and 5 Dec 12. Thirty trainers attended this training program. Training for level 3 and level 4 was organized from 17 to 20 December 2012.

New Centers:

AAMF opened one new Centre this month at Upkar Colony. This centre was opened on 28 December 2012.

New joining:

Following are the new facilitators who have joined during the month of December 2012:

- 1-Tanuja Halder
- 2-Goutam Thakur
- 3-Mohan S.Bharara
- 4-Ms.Sudesh
- 5-Goutam Thakur
- 6-Ms.Priyanka

Jeopardy Sessions: Jeopardy sessions were organized at various FEC locations. There has been amazing response on part of the students. Jeopardy has also helped in making students attend classes regularly and has helped a lot for new admissions. This is indeed a wonderful tool in keeping the interest of the students because of its engaging appeal. Now, because of this game the students are taking their classes very seriously because irregular students are not allowed to play this game.

The students are more participative now and learn amidst a fun environment through jeopardy.

Non Formal Education (NFE)

Sapno ki Pagdandi: Swechh a NGO engaged in issues of education, environment and active citizenship organized a theatrical production called "Sapno ki Pagdandi". This programme celebrated the dreams, desire and aspirations of slum children. Five students from J.J.Bandhu camp attended the programme on 2 December 2012.

Heritage Walk: On 2 Dec 2012, twenty five students and 5 teachers from Seemapuri, Tigri#1,2, Govindpuri and Bhopura participated in the Heritage Walk organized by SRDC at Replica Museum, Siri Fort. The theme of the walk was Masterpieces of Indian Art, myth and symbolism in cultural heritage. Dr.Navina Jafa, Heritage Consultant, SRDC explained about the architecture, sociological and political perspectives.

Visit to Zoo: Sixty students from Gautampuri and Molarband visited National Zoological Park on 8 Dec.

Students enjoyed watching the animals, birds and plants from different countries.

Visit to Fire Station: AAMF organized an educational trip to the Bhikaji Cama Place Fire Station on 22 Dec to make the students aware about safety tips. A group around 30 students from Ambedkar camp and Ekta Vihar were given various safety tips by fire personnel so that they do not panic in case of emergency.

Students celebrated Christmas. They made Santa, X- mas tree and stars.

Meal a Day Program

Out of 10 Feeding Centers run by AAMF, 5 Centers were closed because the demand for food has gone down in these areas. The rest 5 Feeding Centers provide nutritious mid-day meals to poor, old people and children.
